GIRL-WIFE MURDER.

YOUNG JOSEPH SCHLEMMER SAYS HE

MEANT TO SHOOT HIMSELF, But his Wife Caught Hold of the Pistel and t Turned in his Hand-When he Found the was Bend, he Wanted to Kill Himself.

Joseph Schlemmer, the beardless young man who shot his wife down in the street on Aug. 1, was put on trial for his life in Jersey City yesterday. He says he is 22 years old, but he does not look more than 17. His wife, whose maiden name was Tillie Mann, was only 14 years old when Schiemmer married her on Jan. 11 last. The couple had been acquainted only since the previous May, when they met at a picnic. Her mother at first opposed the marriago, because her daughter was too young, but afterward she gave her consent, having got a promise from Schlemmer that her daughter should not live with him until she had become of age. Mrs. Mann was in the church when they were married. On the way back to the house she removed all restrictions, and told Schlemmer and his wife that they might go to housekeeping. The young couple hired two rooms in a tenement in Grove street. Schlemmer was then employed in a shoe house in this city. He earned only $6 a week. At the end of two months, acting upon his mother-in-law's suggestion, Schlemmer gave up housekeeping, and he and his wife went to board with her, Mrs. Hann's husband was out of work, and schlemmer was forced to keep the whole family. He objected to this, and Mrs. Mann broke up the house and want to live with her mother in Jersey avenue. She took her daughter with her. Seliemmer was not allowed after that to see or to speak to his wife. Ho sent lotters to see or to speak to his wife. Ho sent lotters to his mother-in-law, begging her to speak. On the day of the morner's chlemmer met his writer of the day of the morner's chlemmer met his writer. Her mother and grandmother were with her. He spoke to her, and she started ahead of him across the street. A passing horse car prevented Mrs. Mann and her mother from following them. When Schlemmer and his wife stepped from the crosswalk to the sidewalk Schlemmer drew a revolver and sent a build into his wife's breast. She died instantly. She was lying on the sidewalk when her mother and grandmother, neither of whom had seen the shooting, reached her side. Schlemmer, who had run away after firing the shot, was captured and brought back by a policeman to the place where his wife's body lay. Tears came to his syes as he looked upon her face, and then turning to his mother-in-law, he said: was all your fault. That night his wife, brown had seen the shooting, reached her side. Schlemmer shed tears while he testified about his wife. District Attorney Winfield declared that the killing was premeditated. Mrs. Laura Naihby of 67 Newark avenue testified that Schlemmer frequentity called at the house, and that hos night about a month before her murder he told her that he intended to kill his wile and then himself, Mrs. Mann testified that Schlemmer and told her that he intended to kill his wile and then himself, Mrs. Mann testified that Schlemmer had told her that he vould kill her. She told how Schlemmer met her, her daughter, and her mother on the day of the shooting.

"We were standing on the corner of First and Erie streets," she said, when he came up to the streets, she said. W

SHE WAS FOUND SIPPING BEER.

Missing Mary Ann Tully Discovered Near the Har at Schuetzen Park,

A thickly-veiled woman made her appear ance on Wednesday night on the borders of the daucing platform in Schuetzen Park, in Fifty-second street and Third avenue, Brooklyn, and, raising her veil, she closely watched the faces of a number of young girls who were participating in the picuic of the Nobby Boys She tailed to discover the person for whom she was looking, and nervously turned toward the bar, where a number of young people were sipping beer. Then she darted for a tall, stout, good-looking girl and caught her by the arm. The girl screamed and tried to get away, but Policeman Mechan of the Third avenue station came to the woman's assistance and arrosted the girl, who proved to be nineteen-year-old Mary Ann Tully, who had been missing from her home, at 20 North Portland avenue, for more than a week. The woman who had caused her arrest was her mother. The girl spent the night in the police station, and yesterday morning she was arraigned before Justice Massey in the Butler Street Court. Her mother said:

"Mary left her home some time ago, and almost every night since she went away she has been at Schuetzen Park. I made several attempts to get her home, but she always managed to get away. I found her a nice boarding house, but she wouldn't stay there because they wouldn't let her in at I and 2 o'clock in the morning. I took her to Bishop Loughlin, and she promised to reform, but she was off to a pienie the next night. She can earn from $6$ to $9$ a week at book folding, but she won't work."

Justice Massey sent the girl to the Home of good-looking girl and caught her by the arm.

Four florists and landscape gardeners to-day wrote answers in the office of the Municipal Civil Ser vice Examiners to a series of questions prepared by Superintendent of Public Parks Parsons. They are can-didates for the office of Inspector of Tree Planting. Special attention was paid to testing their technical Special attention was paid to testing their technical knowledge. As soon as the appointment is made, maple trees will be planted on West find avenue.

To morrow sevenly five applicants for positions as acepers in the city prisons will be examined as to their general knowledge. They were tested physically at the forms to didny.

On facturing, at the College of the City of New York, sightly candidates for doorman in the police department will struggle with written problems. They have already been subjected to a severe test of physical audities. There are fitteen or sixteen candidates for the position low head by John J. Ufrian, Chief of the fittreau of Liections. They will answer questions on Monday next.

Protestant Episcopal Ministers' Meeting. The annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Diocess of New York ended at 6 o'clock last night. Only routine business was transacted during the day. The old members of the standing committee wer reappointed, and the present incumbents were re-clected trustees of the General Theological Seminary. A great part of the afternoon session was taken up in the discussion of the proposal to provide for special ser-vices not set forth in the Book of Loumon Prayer. The discussion was becoming heated when the whole matter was reterred to the general convention on motion of Dr. Huntingdon.

Removing a Serious Obstruction Gently.

Dynamite and giant powder might answer admirably to remove obstructions from Hell Gate in East River, safety, nor is there the slightest necessity for so doing. On the contrary, it is most unwise. None but the purblind adherents of antiquated theories in medicine adhitters, or the other hand, the huwels are relaxed, not by a convulsion of nature approximating to an eruption of Ht. Popocatapatl, but gradually, beneficially, without weenthing or draughtp. The liver and stomach, as well as the borels, are transferred and beneficially.

CHICKERING HALL.

Second Lecture of the Free Course by Dr. Greene of 35 West 14th St., New York.

The Nervous System and Nervous Diseases.

Dr. Greene's Great Nerve Remedy, The Nervura Nerve Tonic.

The great Chickering Hall was crowded by a brillian and fashionable audience last night. The occasion was the second of Dr. Greene's magnificently illustrated free lectures, and the subject. "The Nervous System and Nervous Diseases," was handled in the Doctor's well-known powerful and masterly manner.

nown powerful and masterly manner.

Dr. Oreene is thoroughly at home upon the subject of nervous affections, as well he might be, for he is without doubt the most eminent specialist at the present day in the treatment of nervous diseases, having made this class of troubles, their cause and cure, a subject of lifeclass of troubles, their cause and cure, a subject of life-long investigation and study. He uses in his practice only harmless vegetable medicines, and it is upon this theory that he has built up his immense practice and wide-spread reputation. He never under any circum-stances, uses poisonous drugs, which in all cases have an injurious effect upon the weakened and debilisted system, but cures his patients by means of the harmless vegetable remedies which nature has so bountifully provided, and whose marvellous restorative powers Dr. Greene has been so fortunate in discovering and adapt-ing to the cure of the sick. Certainly no practice at the present day is attended by so great a success as that by

VEGETABLE MEDICINES, and it is a fact beyond question that no physician has a deeper knowledge of nervous and chronic diseases, or a greater skill and success in their cure, than this able and out extends all over the United States, invalids and the sick coming or writing from all parts of the country to seek his valuable advice, and, by the use of his wonder-ful remedies, to be again restored to health and strength. Another thing which doubtless adds to the magnitude Another thing which doubtless acus to me magnitude of his practice is the fact that he gives advice at his office, 35 West 14th at., New York, absolutely free, sufferers from any and all forms of chronic or lingering complaints having the privilege of consulting him, personally or by letter, without charge of any kind. In charge is for the necessary medicine. This places the great bonefits of this remarkable treatment within the reach of all, and rich and poor alike are taking advan tage of this fact to gain RELIEP AND CURE from their ills. Dr. Greene has been for years among us, and has not only demonstrated his great skill and knowledge as a physician, but also that he is worthy of all confidence and an able adviser and counsellor for those who have the misfortupe to suffer from disease. He may there positive that a cure will result.

There is another thing which is certainly demonstrating to the world the Doctor's great knowledge of the treatment and cure of nervous affections, and that is the fact that he is the proprietor of probably the most successful remedy ever placed on sale at the drug stores. We refer to that great and valuable remedy for nervou diseases, Dr. Greene's Nervura Nerve Tonic, which is to day recognized by physicians, druggists, and the people as the standard medicine for such affections, and is be yond a doubt the best tonic and restorative for the nerves ever discovered. It is the medicine above all others which will the most quickly restore strength and vigor to the weakened and debilitated system, give tone and vitality to the nerves, re-establish lost energy and power, and build up and renew exhausted nerve force. To fulfil these results there is nothing like it, and one has GREAT MERIT AND REMARKABLE VIRTUES. All druggists keep the remedy to supply the large and constantly growing demand, and its low price of one dollar a bottle makes it a popular medicine for the sick of all classes of society. Persons using this remedy may at any time consult Dr. Greene in regard to its acration as the best medicine for the nerves ever known and one which is per ectly harmless and safe to use, because it is purely vegetable. We would caution those who desire to use this preparation to be sure and call for Dr. Greene's Nervura Nerve Tonic, as owing to the marvellous virtues of this remedy and the great demand for it among the people, worthless imitations with some what similar names, or so-called nerve tonics and bev erages, have been placed on sale. No other preparation equals or even approaches that of Dr. Greene's.

This evening in Chickering Hall, the Doctor gives hi great lecture on Physical and Mental Culture. This is perhaps the most interesting of the whole course; cer tainly its illustrations by dissolving views have neve been equalled in this city for beauty and elegance. Ad

Alderman Kenney's Daughter Has a Rad Husband.

Mrs. Lillie McDonnell, the pale and pretty oon and told a sad story. Mrs McDonnell has been sarried eleven years, and during that time she has no seived one dollar, she says, from her husband, Henry received one dollar, she says, from her husband, Henry E. McDonnell, but has been obliged to rely upon her parents for the support of herself and her three children. She says that abe felt compelled to swear out the com-plaint on which her husband was held. Her mother cor-roborated her statements, and Justice forman held No-Donnell to furnish a bond of $520 to give $ii a week for the support of his family. McDonnell lives at the Occi-dental flotel, while his wife and family are staying with the mother at 120 Rivington street.
